SCHOOL REPORT.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

Prudential Committee, Story Lowe.

Board and fuel given by the District. No. of weeks of school, 24. Taught by Ellen M. Nahor. A teacher of much experience, and a worker in the school room. At the commencement of the first term, your committee was expecting to see marked improvement during the year. At the close of the last term his expectations were more than realized. The examination showed thoroughness in all the branches studied. Miss Nahor certainly is deserving of much praise. She ranks high among our teachers. The year will long be remembered by parents and pupils as one of great success in the school room. We now consider this school No. 1 in scholarship as well as No. 1 in number.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

Prudential Committee, Frank Blanchard.

Summer term taught by Emilie Bradford. Miss Bradford's first experience as a teacher. She entered upon her work with zeal, and with quick perception soon gained the confidence and love of her pupils. Good improvement was made in the branches pursued. Promptness was noticeable in all the recitations. We think Miss Bradford will soon be called to fill places higher up, possessing as she does those qualities of mind and heart which make the efficient teacher. Urbanity, vivacity, and good judgment, with quick perception, are noble qualities in a teacher.

Winter term, Miss Jennie E. Fuller, teacher. Quietly, but with a deep feeling of her responsibility, she commenced her labors. Like her predecessor, she gained the good will of all, parents and pupils. The examination gave evidence of time well spent by teacher and scholars.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Prudential Committee, Charles H. Hopkins. No. of weeks of school, thirty. Taught by Hattie L. Pettengill. Any district which secures her services is quite sure of a good school. She not only gains but retains the good will of all. Success attended her labors during the year. We believe greater results might be accomplished if the parents, especially the fathers, would manifest more interest in the school. A few visits from parents during the year has a great influence for good in any district. Every teacher needs the co-operation of the parents. They should be co-laborers together, then we are sure of success in the highest degree.

DISTRICT NO. 4,

With No. 5 of Bennington, has been under the care of Bennington S. S. Committee.

DISTRICT NO. 5 & 8.

Prudential Committee, D. O. Flynn.

One term of school—12 weeks. Taught by Emma J. Nahor. It is a source of pleasure to report this school. Not because it has had only 12 weeks of school during the year, but because of the remarkable improvement made in twelve weeks. We like to meet a live teacher in a school room, one who is thoroughly alive in the work. Such a one we find in Miss Nahor. She does much in a short time, and does it well. It is pleasant to the teacher to know their labor is appreciated by pupils and parents, as well as the Superintendent.

DISTRICT NO. 7.

Prudential Committee, Levi Dodge.

Summer term taught by Emma A. Burnham. An efficient teacher and well adapted to the school room. We can truly recommend Miss Burnham as a good and faithful teacher.

Winter term taught by Newell J. Sawyer. The number of times he has been called upon to teach this school is evidence of his popularity. He needs no recommendation from me. The school did well.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

Prudential Committee, Wm. H. Atherton.

Summer term, taught by Nellie E. Fletcher. Miss Fletcher retained her former reputation, and we think gave satisfaction to all. The school did well.

Winter term, taught by Belle Starrett. Miss Starrett's first term. The school appeared well at the commencement and at the close, and commendable progress was made in all branches. We notice by the register that some of the scholars were not very punctual in their attendance. Such cannot expect to make great improvement.

REMARKS.

We are thankful to see a growing interest in the education of the young in our town. We would be glad to see still more in some districts. Hope all who can will avail themselves of the opportunity now given them to attend the Academy at Francestown—a privilege none of us who wish to educate our children can afford to lose. Thanks to Mr. Cowell for the good work he is doing. We feel his influence. May his stay be long in Francestown, and the blessing of our Heavenly Father rest upon his labors. Hope none of us will become weary in well doing. The good we can do, let us do with our might. Let us all try to sow the good seed, to create within our children aspirations that are higher, purer, nobler, and He who knoweth our hearts will in due time reward us.

The report, and these few remarks, with the page of statistics, is respectfully submitted.
